

Wits: The New Century

SITS ON THE TABLE.
FLIP IT TO SETTLE A CHALLENGE.

THE FOUR CAMPS   Progressive Republican   Old Guard Republican   Southern Democrat   New Deal Democrat

ONE QUESTION   Is it the CAMP? Or the ISSUE?

Every card is one camp and one issue. The card never tells you which. You work it out.

Your turn   do ONE of these four

1 Match the camp

Play a card from the same camp as the top card, and name it.

YOU SAY
"Progressive Republican."

Camp stays Progressive Republican
The next player has to match it too.

2 Outwit – the move worth making

A different camp, but the same issue as the top card. Say both.

YOU SAY
"Old Guard Republican. Same issue – who leads."

Camp flips to Old Guard Republican
Now everyone plays Old Guard Republican.

3 Bluff it

Can't do either? Play any card at all and name a camp anyway. Nobody can see what it really is.

YOU SAY, STRAIGHT-FACED
"Progressive Republican."

Get away with it?
The card is played. Get caught and it comes back, plus 2.

4 Draw one

→ Play it if it fits – otherwise your turn ends.

Anyone, any time   including out of turn

"CHALLENGE!"

Think somebody named the wrong camp, or called an Outwit that does not match? Say so before the next player goes.

Flip this sheet to settle it

They lied

The card goes back to their hand and they draw 2.

They told the truth

You draw 2 instead.

Action cards   no camp, no issue – play them on anything

ACTION Wild Wit

Play on anything. You name the camp that comes next. It buries the issue, so the next player matches the camp or draws.

ACTION Witless

The next player is witless – they lose their turn.

ACTION Outwit

Next player must Outwit on the issue. No action card saves them – or draw 2.

"Wit!"

Down to one card? Say it out loud before the next player moves. Caught silent, draw 2.

First player out of cards wins – but you can't go out on a Wild Wit.

Answer Key

Camps across, issues down. Flip this over to settle a challenge.

|                                                                                                                     | Progressive Republican                                                                                                                                | Old Guard Republican                                                                                                                                    | Southern Democrat                                                                                                                                        | New Deal Democrat                                                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHO LEADS               | Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform     | William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it            | Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution | Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning                      |
| WHAT THEY WANT          | The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust           | The chief business of the American people is business A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments                         | States' rights first, and the federal government last A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why                | Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes The WPA put eight million people to work with public money                             |
| GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS | Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt       | Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25 Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship               | Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad                           | The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states            |
| RACE AND RIGHTS       | The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted    | The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there  | Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach                 | Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South |
| WHO BACKS THEM        | Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them The city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water | Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade Rugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington | Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse In 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York      | Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition                     |

Challenged and right? The card goes back to the player who lied, and they draw 2.

Challenged and wrong? The challenger draws 2 instead.

An Outwit needs a different camp and a matching issue. Check both here.

Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot

WITS

William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail

WITS

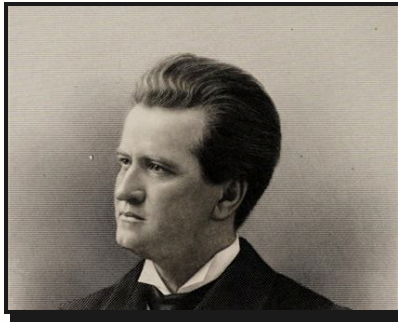

Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington

WITS

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times

WITS

Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform

WITS

Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it

WITS

William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution

WITS

Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning

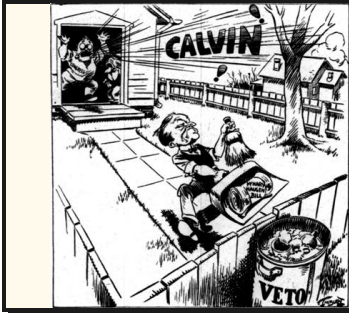

WITS

The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson

WITS

[illegible]

The chief business of the American people is business

WITS

States' rights first, and the federal government last

WITS

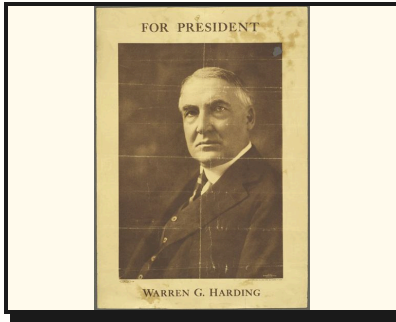

Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes

WITS

Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust

WITS

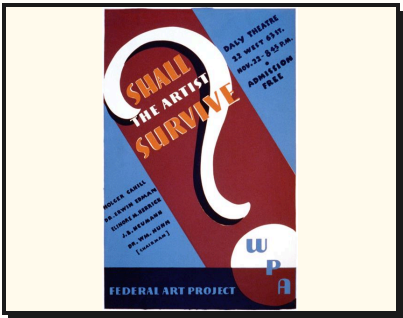

A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments

WITS

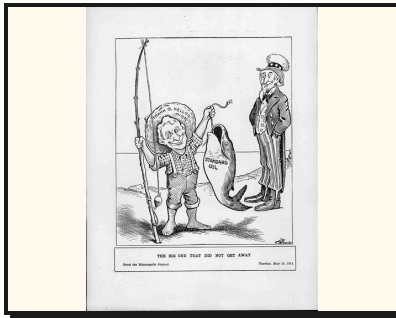

A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why

WITS

The WPA put eight million people to work with public money

WITS

Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies

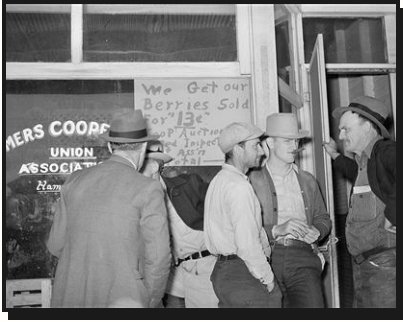

WITS

Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25

WITS

[illegible]

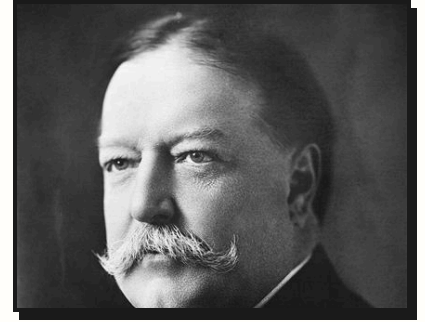

Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties

WITS

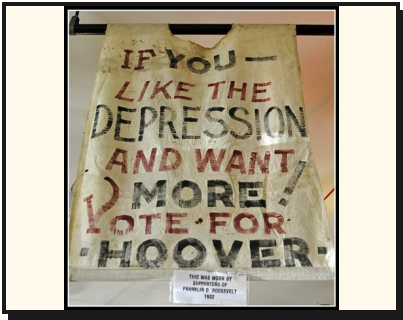

The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively

WITS

William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt

WITS

Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship

WITS

Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad

WITS

The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states

WITS

The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote

WITS

The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe

WITS

Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short

WITS

[illegible]

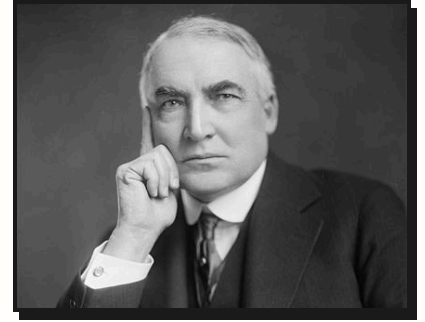

Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House

WITS

Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted

WITS

Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there

WITS

Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach

WITS

Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South

WITS

Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them

WITS

Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade

WITS

Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse

WITS

Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once

WITS

[illegible]

The city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water

WITS

Rugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington

WITS

In 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York

WITS

Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition

WITS

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

[illegible]

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

Wits: The New Century

SITS ON THE TABLE.
FLIP IT TO SETTLE A CHALLENGE.

THE FOUR CAMPS   Progressive Republican   Old Guard Republican   Southern Democrat   New Deal Democrat

ONE QUESTION Is it the CAMP? Or the ISSUE?

Every card is one camp and one issue. The card never tells you which. You work it out.

Your turn do ONE of these four

1 Match the camp

Play a card from the same camp as the top card, and name it.

YOU SAY
"Progressive Republican."

Camp stays Progressive Republican
The next player has to match it too.

2 Outwit – the move worth making

A different camp, but the same issue as the top card. Say both.

YOU SAY
"Old Guard Republican. Same issue – who leads."

Camp flips to Old Guard Republican
Now everyone plays Old Guard Republican.

3 Bluff it

Can't do either? Play any card at all and name a camp anyway. Nobody can see what it really is.

YOU SAY, STRAIGHT-FACED
"Progressive Republican."

Get away with it?
The card is played. Get caught and it comes back, plus 2.

4 Draw one

Play it if it fits – otherwise your turn ends.

Anyone, any time including out of turn

"CHALLENGE!"

Think somebody named the wrong camp, or called an Outwit that does not match? Say so before the next player goes.

Flip this sheet to settle it

They lied

The card goes back to their hand and they draw 2.

They told the truth

You draw 2 instead.

Action cards no camp, no issue – play them on anything

ACTION Wild Wit

Play on anything. You name the camp that comes next. It buries the issue, so the next player matches the camp or draws.

ACTION Witless

The next player is witless – they lose their turn.

ACTION Outwit

Next player must Outwit on the issue. No action card saves them – or draw 2.

"Wit!"

Down to one card? Say it out loud before the next player moves. Caught silent, draw 2.

First player out of cards wins – but you can't go out on a Wild Wit.

Answer Key

Camps across, issues down. Flip this over to settle a challenge.

|                                                                                                                     | Progressive Republican                                                                                                                                | Old Guard Republican                                                                                                                                    | Southern Democrat                                                                                                                                        | New Deal Democrat                                                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHO LEADS               | Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform     | William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it            | Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution | Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning                      |
| WHAT THEY WANT          | The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust           | The chief business of the American people is business A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments                         | States' rights first, and the federal government last A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why                | Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes The WPA put eight million people to work with public money                             |
| GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS | Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt       | Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25 Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship               | Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad                           | The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states            |
| RACE AND RIGHTS       | The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted    | The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there  | Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach                 | Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South |
| WHO BACKS THEM        | Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them The city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water | Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade Rugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington | Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse In 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York      | Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition                     |

Challenged and right? The card goes back to the player who lied, and they draw 2.

Challenged and wrong? The challenger draws 2 instead.

An Outwit needs a different camp and a matching issue. Check both here.

Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot

WITS

William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail

WITS

Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington

WITS

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times

WITS

Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform

WITS

Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it

WITS

William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution

WITS

Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning

WITS

The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson

WITS

[illegible]

The chief business of the American people is business

WITS

States' rights first, and the federal government last

WITS

Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes

WITS

Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust

WITS

A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments

WITS

A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why

WITS

The WPA put eight million people to work with public money

WITS

Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies

WITS

Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25

WITS

[illegible]

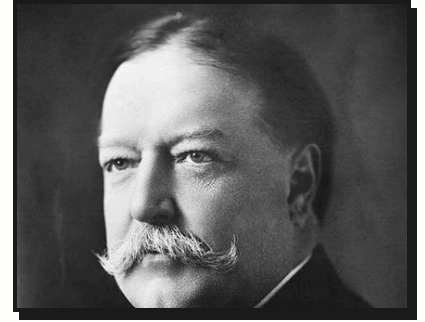

Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties

WITS

The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively

WITS

William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt

WITS

Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship

WITS

Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad

WITS

The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states

WITS

The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote

WITS

The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe

WITS

Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short

WITS

[illegible]

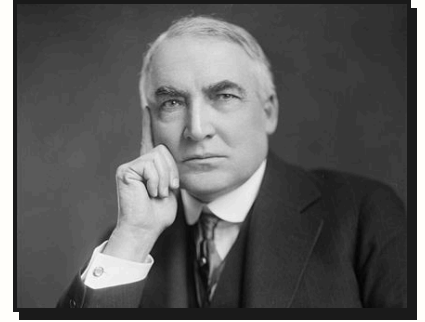

Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House

WITS

Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted

WITS

Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there

WITS

Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach

WITS

Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South

WITS

Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them

WITS

Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade

WITS

Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse

WITS

Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once

WITS

[illegible]

The city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water

WITS

Rugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington

WITS

In 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York

WITS

Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition

WITS

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

[illegible]

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

Wits: The New Century

SITS ON THE TABLE.
FLIP IT TO SETTLE A CHALLENGE.

THE FOUR CAMPS    Progressive Republican    Old Guard Republican    Southern Democrat    New Deal Democrat

ONE QUESTION Is it the CAMP? Or the ISSUE?

Every card is one camp and one issue. The card never tells you which. You work it out.

Your turn do ONE of these four

1 Match the camp

Play a card from the same camp as the top card, and name it.

YOU SAY
"Progressive Republican."

Camp stays Progressive Republican
The next player has to match it too.

2 Outwit – the move worth making

A different camp, but the same issue as the top card. Say both.

YOU SAY
"Old Guard Republican. Same issue – who leads."

Camp flips to Old Guard Republican
Now everyone plays Old Guard Republican.

3 Bluff it

Can't do either? Play any card at all and name a camp anyway. Nobody can see what it really is.

YOU SAY, STRAIGHT-FACED
"Progressive Republican."

Get away with it?
The card is played. Get caught and it comes back, plus 2.

4 Draw one

Play it if it fits – otherwise your turn ends.

Anyone, any time including out of turn

"CHALLENGE!"

Think somebody named the wrong camp, or called an Outwit that does not match? Say so before the next player goes.

Flip this sheet to settle it

They lied

The card goes back to their hand and they draw 2.

They told the truth

You draw 2 instead.

Action cards no camp, no issue – play them on anything

ACTION Wild Wit

Play on anything. You name the camp that comes next. It buries the issue, so the next player matches the camp or draws.

ACTION Witless

The next player is witless – they lose their turn.

ACTION Outwit

Next player must Outwit on the issue. No action card saves them – or draw 2.

"Wit!"

Down to one card? Say it out loud before the next player moves. Caught silent, draw 2.

First player out of cards wins – but you can't go out on a Wild Wit.

Answer Key

Camps across, issues down. Flip this over to settle a challenge.

|                                                                                                              | Progressive Republican                                                                                                                         | Old Guard Republican                                                                                                                             | Southern Democrat                                                                                                                                 | New Deal Democrat                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHO LEADS               | Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shotRobert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform     | William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pailCalvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it            | Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in WashingtonWilliam Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution | Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four timesHarry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning                      |
| WHAT THEY WANT          | The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to WilsonConservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust           | The chief business of the American people is businessA return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments                         | States' rights first, and the federal government lastA Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why                | Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxesThe WPA put eight million people to work with public money                             |
| GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS | Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companiesWilliam Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt       | Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship               | Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco countiesLow tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad                           | The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectivelyThe TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states            |
| RACE AND RIGHTS       | The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the voteBooker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted    | The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern EuropeWarren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there  | Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls shortCalled federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach                 | Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White HouseLet the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South |
| WHO BACKS THEM        | Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed themThe city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water | Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decadeRugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington | Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouseIn 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York      | Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at onceCities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition                     |

Challenged and right? The card goes back to the player who lied, and they draw 2.

Challenged and wrong? The challenger draws 2 instead.

An Outwit needs a different camp and a matching issue. Check both here.

Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot

WITS

William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail

WITS

Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington

WITS

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times

WITS

Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform

WITS

Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it

WITS

William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution

WITS

Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning

WITS

The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson

WITS

[illegible]

The chief business of the American people is business

WITS

States' rights first, and the federal government last

WITS

Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes

WITS

Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust

WITS

A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments

WITS

A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why

WITS

The WPA put eight million people to work with public money

WITS

Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies

WITS

Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25

WITS

[illegible]

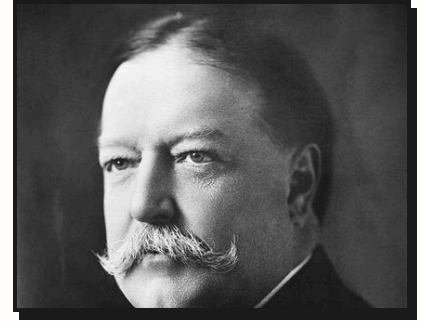

Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties

WITS

The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively

WITS

William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt

WITS

Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship

WITS

Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad

WITS

The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states

WITS

The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote

WITS

The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe

WITS

Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short

WITS

[illegible]

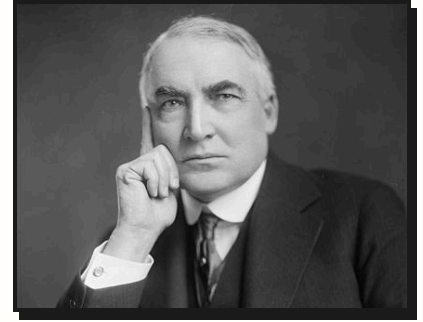

Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House

WITS

Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted

WITS

Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there

WITS

Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach

WITS

Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South

WITS

Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them

WITS

Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade

WITS

Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse

WITS

Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once

WITS

[illegible]

The city middle class that wanted honest government
and clean water

WITS

Rugged individualism: help
should come from neighbors,
not from Washington

WITS

In 1928 the Solid South
cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York

WITS

Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy
coalition

WITS

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match
the camp, and no action card
will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

[illegible]

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

Wits: The New Century

SITS ON THE TABLE.
FLIP IT TO SETTLE A CHALLENGE.

THE FOUR CAMPS   Progressive Republican   Old Guard Republican   Southern Democrat   New Deal Democrat

ONE QUESTION Is it the CAMP? Or the ISSUE?

Every card is one camp and one issue. The card never tells you which. You work it out.

Your turn do ONE of these four

1 Match the camp

Play a card from the same camp as the top card, and name it.

YOU SAY
"Progressive Republican."

Camp stays Progressive Republican
The next player has to match it too.

2 Outwit – the move worth making

A different camp, but the same issue as the top card. Say both.

YOU SAY
"Old Guard Republican. Same issue – who leads."

Camp flips to Old Guard Republican
Now everyone plays Old Guard Republican.

3 Bluff it

Can't do either? Play any card at all and name a camp anyway. Nobody can see what it really is.

YOU SAY, STRAIGHT-FACED
"Progressive Republican."

Get away with it?
The card is played. Get caught and it comes back, plus 2.

4 Draw one

Play it if it fits – otherwise your turn ends.

Anyone, any time including out of turn

"CHALLENGE!"

Think somebody named the wrong camp, or called an Outwit that does not match? Say so before the next player goes.

Flip this sheet to settle it

They lied

The card goes back to their hand and they draw 2.

They told the truth

You draw 2 instead.

Action cards no camp, no issue – play them on anything

ACTION Wild Wit

Play on anything. You name the camp that comes next. It buries the issue, so the next player matches the camp or draws.

ACTION Witless

The next player is witless – they lose their turn.

ACTION Outwit

Next player must Outwit on the issue. No action card saves them – or draw 2.

"Wit!"

Down to one card? Say it out loud before the next player moves. Caught silent, draw 2.

First player out of cards wins – but you can't go out on a Wild Wit.

Answer Key

Camps across, issues down. Flip this over to settle a challenge.

|                                                                                                              | Progressive Republican                                                                                                                         | Old Guard Republican                                                                                                                             | Southern Democrat                                                                                                                                 | New Deal Democrat                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHO LEADS               | Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shotRobert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform     | William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pailCalvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it            | Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in WashingtonWilliam Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution | Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four timesHarry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning                      |
| WHAT THEY WANT          | The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to WilsonConservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust           | The chief business of the American people is businessA return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments                         | States' rights first, and the federal government lastA Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why                | Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxesThe WPA put eight million people to work with public money                             |
| GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS | Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companiesWilliam Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt       | Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship               | Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco countiesLow tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad                           | The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectivelyThe TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states            |
| RACE AND RIGHTS       | The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the voteBooker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted    | The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern EuropeWarren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there  | Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls shortCalled federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach                 | Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White HouseLet the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South |
| WHO BACKS THEM        | Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed themThe city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water | Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decadeRugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington | Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouseIn 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York      | Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at onceCities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition                     |

Challenged and right? The card goes back to the player who lied, and they draw 2.

Challenged and wrong? The challenger draws 2 instead.

An Outwit needs a different camp and a matching issue. Check both here.

Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot

WITS

William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail

WITS

Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington

WITS

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times

WITS

Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform

WITS

Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it

WITS

William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution

WITS

Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning

WITS

The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson

WITS

[illegible]

The chief business of the American people is business

WITS

States' rights first, and the federal government last

WITS

Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes

WITS

Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust

WITS

A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments

WITS

A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why

WITS

The WPA put eight million people to work with public money

WITS

Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies

WITS

Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25

WITS

[illegible]

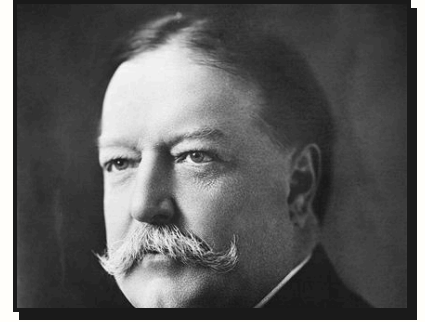

Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties

WITS

The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively

WITS

William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt

WITS

Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship

WITS

Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad

WITS

The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states

WITS

The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote

WITS

The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe

WITS

Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short

WITS

[illegible]

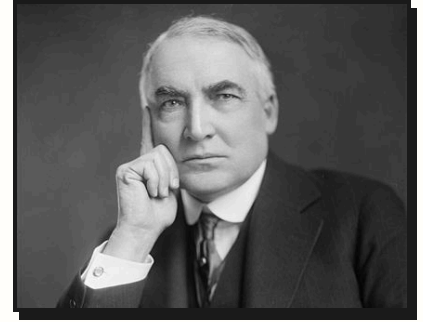

Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House

WITS

Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted

WITS

Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there

WITS

Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach

WITS

Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South

WITS

Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them

WITS

Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade

WITS

Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse

WITS

Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once

WITS

[illegible]

The city middle class that wanted honest government
and clean water

WITS

Rugged individualism: help
should come from neighbors,
not from Washington

WITS

In 1928 the Solid South
cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York

WITS

Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy
coalition

WITS

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match
the camp, and no action card
will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

[illegible]

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

Wits: The New Century

SITS ON THE TABLE.
FLIP IT TO SETTLE A CHALLENGE.

THE FOUR CAMPS   Progressive Republican   Old Guard Republican   Southern Democrat   New Deal Democrat

ONE QUESTION Is it the CAMP? Or the ISSUE?

Every card is one camp and one issue. The card never tells you which. You work it out.

Your turn do ONE of these four

1 Match the camp

Play a card from the same camp as the top card, and name it.

YOU SAY
"Progressive Republican."

Camp stays Progressive Republican
The next player has to match it too.

2 Outwit – the move worth making

A different camp, but the same issue as the top card. Say both.

YOU SAY
"Old Guard Republican. Same issue – who leads."

Camp flips to Old Guard Republican
Now everyone plays Old Guard Republican.

3 Bluff it

Can't do either? Play any card at all and name a camp anyway. Nobody can see what it really is.

YOU SAY, STRAIGHT-FACED
"Progressive Republican."

Get away with it?
The card is played. Get caught and it comes back, plus 2.

4 Draw one

→ Play it if it fits – otherwise your turn ends.

Anyone, any time including out of turn

"CHALLENGE!"

Think somebody named the wrong camp, or called an Outwit that does not match? Say so before the next player goes.

Flip this sheet to settle it

They lied

The card goes back to their hand and they draw 2.

They told the truth

You draw 2 instead.

Action cards no camp, no issue – play them on anything

ACTION Wild Wit

Play on anything. You name the camp that comes next. It buries the issue, so the next player matches the camp or draws.

ACTION Witless

The next player is witless – they lose their turn.

ACTION Outwit

Next player must Outwit on the issue. No action card saves them – or draw 2.

"Wit!"

Down to one card? Say it out loud before the next player moves. Caught silent, draw 2.

First player out of cards wins – but you can't go out on a Wild Wit.

Answer Key

Camps across, issues down. Flip this over to settle a challenge.

|                                                                                                                     | Progressive Republican                                                                                                                                | Old Guard Republican                                                                                                                                    | Southern Democrat                                                                                                                                        | New Deal Democrat                                                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHO LEADS               | Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform     | William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it            | Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution | Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning                      |
| WHAT THEY WANT          | The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust           | The chief business of the American people is business A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments                         | States' rights first, and the federal government last A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why                | Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes The WPA put eight million people to work with public money                             |
| GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS | Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt       | Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25 Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship               | Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad                           | The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states            |
| RACE AND RIGHTS       | The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted    | The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there  | Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach                 | Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South |
| WHO BACKS THEM        | Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them The city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water | Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade Rugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington | Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse In 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York      | Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition                     |

Challenged and right? The card goes back to the player who lied, and they draw 2.

Challenged and wrong? The challenger draws 2 instead.

An Outwit needs a different camp and a matching issue. Check both here.

Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot

WITS

William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail

WITS

Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington

WITS

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times

WITS

Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform

WITS

Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it

WITS

William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution

WITS

Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning

WITS

The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson

WITS

[illegible]

The chief business of the American people is business

WITS

States' rights first, and the federal government last

WITS

Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes

WITS

Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust

WITS

A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments

WITS

A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why

WITS

The WPA put eight million people to work with public money

WITS

Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies

WITS

Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25

WITS

[illegible]

Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties

WITS

The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively

WITS

William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt

WITS

Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship

WITS

Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad

WITS

The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states

WITS

The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote

WITS

The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe

WITS

Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short

WITS

[illegible]

Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House

WITS

Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted

WITS

Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there

WITS

Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach

WITS

Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South

WITS

Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them

WITS

Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade

WITS

Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse

WITS

Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once

WITS

[illegible]

The city middle class that wanted honest government
and clean water

WITS

Rugged individualism: help
should come from neighbors,
not from Washington

WITS

In 1928 the Solid South
cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York

WITS

Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy
coalition

WITS

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match
the camp, and no action card
will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

[illegible]

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

Wits: The New Century

SITS ON THE TABLE.
FLIP IT TO SETTLE A CHALLENGE.

THE FOUR CAMPS   Progressive Republican   Old Guard Republican   Southern Democrat   New Deal Democrat

ONE QUESTION   Is it the CAMP? Or the ISSUE?

Every card is one camp and one issue. The card never tells you which. You work it out.

Your turn   do ONE of these four

1 Match the camp

Play a card from the same camp as the top card, and name it.

YOU SAY
"Progressive Republican."

Camp stays Progressive Republican
The next player has to match it too.

2 Outwit – the move worth making

A different camp, but the same issue as the top card. Say both.

YOU SAY
"Old Guard Republican. Same issue – who leads."

Camp flips to Old Guard Republican
Now everyone plays Old Guard Republican.

3 Bluff it

Can't do either? Play any card at all and name a camp anyway. Nobody can see what it really is.

YOU SAY, STRAIGHT-FACED
"Progressive Republican."

Get away with it?
The card is played. Get caught and it comes back, plus 2.

4 Draw one

Play it if it fits – otherwise your turn ends.

Anyone, any time   including out of turn

"CHALLENGE!"

Think somebody named the wrong camp, or called an Outwit that does not match? Say so before the next player goes.

Flip this sheet to settle it

They lied

The card goes back to their hand and they draw 2.

They told the truth

You draw 2 instead.

Action cards   no camp, no issue – play them on anything

ACTION Wild Wit

Play on anything. You name the camp that comes next. It buries the issue, so the next player matches the camp or draws.

ACTION Witless

The next player is witless – they lose their turn.

ACTION Outwit

Next player must Outwit on the issue. No action card saves them – or draw 2.

"Wit!"

Down to one card? Say it out loud before the next player moves. Caught silent, draw 2.

First player out of cards wins – but you can't go out on a Wild Wit.

Answer Key

Camps across, issues down. Flip this over to settle a challenge.

|                                                                                                              | Progressive Republican                                                                                                                         | Old Guard Republican                                                                                                                             | Southern Democrat                                                                                                                                 | New Deal Democrat                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHO LEADS               | Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shotRobert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform     | William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pailCalvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it            | Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in WashingtonWilliam Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution | Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four timesHarry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning                      |
| WHAT THEY WANT          | The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to WilsonConservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust           | The chief business of the American people is businessA return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments                         | States' rights first, and the federal government lastA Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why                | Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxesThe WPA put eight million people to work with public money                             |
| GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS | Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companiesWilliam Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt       | Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship               | Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco countiesLow tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad                           | The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectivelyThe TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states            |
| RACE AND RIGHTS       | The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the voteBooker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted    | The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern EuropeWarren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there  | Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls shortCalled federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach                 | Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White HouseLet the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South |
| WHO BACKS THEM        | Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed themThe city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water | Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decadeRugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington | Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouseIn 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York      | Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at onceCities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition                     |

Challenged and right? The card goes back to the player who lied, and they draw 2.

Challenged and wrong? The challenger draws 2 instead.

An Outwit needs a different camp and a matching issue. Check both here.

Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot

WITS

William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail

WITS

Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington

WITS

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times

WITS

Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform

WITS

Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it

WITS

William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution

WITS

Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning

WITS

The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson

WITS

[illegible]

The chief business of the American people is business

WITS

States' rights first, and the federal government last

WITS

Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes

WITS

Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust

WITS

A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments

WITS

A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why

WITS

The WPA put eight million people to work with public money

WITS

Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies

WITS

Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25

WITS

[illegible]

Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties

WITS

The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively

WITS

William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt

WITS

Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship

WITS

Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad

WITS

The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states

WITS

The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote

WITS

The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe

WITS

Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short

WITS

[illegible]

Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House

WITS

Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted

WITS

Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there

WITS

Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach

WITS

Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South

WITS

Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them

WITS

Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade

WITS

Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse

WITS

Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once

WITS

[illegible]

The city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water

WITS

Rugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington

WITS

In 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York

WITS

Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition

WITS

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

[illegible]

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

Wits: The New Century

SITS ON THE TABLE.
FLIP IT TO SETTLE A CHALLENGE.

THE FOUR CAMPS    Progressive Republican    Old Guard Republican    Southern Democrat    New Deal Democrat

ONE QUESTION Is it the CAMP? Or the ISSUE?

Every card is one camp and one issue. The card never tells you which. You work it out.

Your turn do ONE of these four

1 Match the camp

Play a card from the same camp as the top card, and name it.

YOU SAY
"Progressive Republican."

Camp stays Progressive Republican
The next player has to match it too.

2 Outwit – the move worth making

A different camp, but the same issue as the top card. Say both.

YOU SAY
"Old Guard Republican. Same issue – who leads."

Camp flips to Old Guard Republican
Now everyone plays Old Guard Republican.

3 Bluff it

Can't do either? Play any card at all and name a camp anyway. Nobody can see what it really is.

YOU SAY, STRAIGHT-FACED
"Progressive Republican."

Get away with it?
The card is played. Get caught and it comes back, plus 2.

4 Draw one

Play it if it fits – otherwise your turn ends.

Anyone, any time including out of turn

"CHALLENGE!"

Think somebody named the wrong camp, or called an Outwit that does not match? Say so before the next player goes.

Flip this sheet to settle it

They lied

The card goes back to their hand and they draw 2.

They told the truth

You draw 2 instead.

Action cards no camp, no issue – play them on anything

ACTION Wild Wit

Play on anything. You name the camp that comes next. It buries the issue, so the next player matches the camp or draws.

ACTION Witless

The next player is witless – they lose their turn.

ACTION Outwit

Next player must Outwit on the issue. No action card saves them – or draw 2.

"Wit!"

Down to one card? Say it out loud before the next player moves. Caught silent, draw 2.

First player out of cards wins – but you can't go out on a Wild Wit.

Answer Key

Camps across, issues down. Flip this over to settle a challenge.

|                                                                                                              | Progressive Republican                                                                                                                         | Old Guard Republican                                                                                                                             | Southern Democrat                                                                                                                                 | New Deal Democrat                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHO LEADS               | Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shotRobert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform     | William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pailCalvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it            | Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in WashingtonWilliam Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution | Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four timesHarry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning                      |
| WHAT THEY WANT          | The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to WilsonConservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust           | The chief business of the American people is businessA return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments                         | States' rights first, and the federal government lastA Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why                | Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxesThe WPA put eight million people to work with public money                             |
| GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS | Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companiesWilliam Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt       | Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship               | Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco countiesLow tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad                           | The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectivelyThe TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states            |
| RACE AND RIGHTS       | The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the voteBooker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted    | The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern EuropeWarren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there  | Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls shortCalled federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach                 | Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White HouseLet the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South |
| WHO BACKS THEM        | Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed themThe city middle class that wanted honest government and clean water | Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decadeRugged individualism: help should come from neighbors, not from Washington | Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouseIn 1928 the Solid South cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York      | Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at onceCities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy coalition                     |

Challenged and right? The card goes back to the player who lied, and they draw 2.

Challenged and wrong? The challenger draws 2 instead.

An Outwit needs a different camp and a matching issue. Check both here.

Theodore Roosevelt, who came in at forty-two when McKinley was shot

WITS

William McKinley, elected on the promise of a full dinner pail

WITS

Woodrow Wilson, who re-segregated the federal offices in Washington

WITS

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the only man elected to the office four times

WITS

Robert La Follette, who made Wisconsin the laboratory of reform

WITS

Calvin Coolidge, who said almost nothing and was elected for it

WITS

William Jennings Bryan, prosecuting a Tennessee teacher over evolution

WITS

Harry Truman, who took the oath in April 1945 with no warning

WITS

The Bull Moose split of 1912, which handed the election to Wilson

WITS

[illegible]

The chief business of the American people is business

WITS

States' rights first, and the federal government last

WITS

Social Security: a federal pension paid for out of payroll taxes

WITS

Conservation: 230 million acres of public land put in trust

WITS

A return to normalcy: no more crusades, no more experiments

WITS

A Solid South that voted one way for eighty years, and remembered why

WITS

The WPA put eight million people to work with public money

WITS

Antitrust suits that broke Standard Oil into thirty-four companies

WITS

Andrew Mellon cut the top income tax rate from 73 percent to 25

WITS

[illegible]

Farm relief for the cotton and tobacco counties

WITS

The Wagner Act of 1935 guaranteed the right to bargain collectively

WITS

William Howard Taft, who filed more trust suits than Roosevelt

WITS

Government should not hand out relief to people in hardship

WITS

Low tariffs, for a region that lived by selling its crops abroad

WITS

The TVA put the government into the electricity business in seven states

WITS

The Nineteenth Amendment, ratified in 1920, gave women the vote

WITS

The immigration quotas of 1924, written to favor northern Europe

WITS

Poll taxes and literacy tests kept the voting rolls short

WITS

[illegible]

Eleanor Roosevelt and the Black Cabinet, advising from inside the White House

WITS

Booker T. Washington dined at the White House, and the South erupted

WITS

Warren Harding called lynching a stain on the nation, and left it there

WITS

Called federal anti-lynching bills an unconstitutional overreach

WITS

Let the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill die rather than lose the South

WITS

Muckraking magazines and the middle-class readers who believed them

WITS

Bankers, manufacturers, and a stock market climbing all decade

WITS

Planters, tenant farmers, and whoever ran the county courthouse

WITS

Industrial labor and the CIO, organizing whole factories at once

WITS

[illegible]

The city middle class that wanted honest government
and clean water

WITS

Rugged individualism: help
should come from neighbors,
not from Washington

WITS

In 1928 the Solid South
cracked over a Catholic nominee from New York

WITS

Cities, unions, Black voters and the South in one uneasy
coalition

WITS

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match
the camp, and no action card
will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp
that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an
Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

[illegible]

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

ACTION

Outwit

The next player may not match the camp, and no action card will save them. Outwit on the issue, or draw 2.

ACTION

Wild Wit

Play it on anything except an Outwit. Then name the camp that comes next.

ACTION

Witless

Play it on anything except an Outwit. The next player is witless — they lose their turn.

[illegible]